

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
OBSERVABLE COMPUTE FOUNDATION

The undersigned natural person, being at least eighteen (18) years of age, for the purpose of forming a nonprofit corporation under the South Dakota Nonprofit Corporation Act, hereby adopts the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of the corporation is Observable Compute Foundation.

ARTICLE II - DURATION

The corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

Specifically, the corporation shall:

- (a) Conduct empirical research on technology terminology evolution and legal-technical alignment;
- (b) Publish quarterly reports documenting terminology emergence, definition shifts, and translation gaps across research, legal, industry, and public domains;
- (c) Maintain a public database tracking technology concept clustering and adoption patterns;
- (d) Provide educational workshops and resources to underserved rural communities on technology literacy and artificial intelligence systems;
- (e) Develop and disseminate open-source research frameworks and tools;
- (f) Engage in any lawful activity in furtherance of the above purposes.

ARTICLE IV - POWERS

The corporation shall have all powers granted to nonprofit corporations under South Dakota law, including but not limited to the power to:

- (a) Receive and administer funds, property, and contributions from public and private sources;
- (b) Contract with individuals, organizations, and governmental entities;
- (c) Employ personnel and independent contractors;
- (d) Publish research, reports, and educational materials;

(e) Hold property, real and personal, necessary or convenient for carrying out its purposes.

ARTICLE V - NO PRIVATE INUREMENT

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III.

ARTICLE VI - POLITICAL ACTIVITY PROHIBITION

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE VII - DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution of the corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the corporation, the remaining assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VIII - PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.
